$370...TOO MUCH FOR THE MEGA-CD-ROM??

The most talked about item among Genesis users is the Mega-CD-ROM. Letters have been pouring in to our offices by the hundreds wanting to know every possible detail about this phenomenal super peripheral. And, like you, we too are extremely interested in seeing this great machine take off and be a success. We will go to any extreme to squeeze out every bit of information from our WorldNet™ sources and Sega of Japan. Being first with system photos, technical specs and game screens are but a small part of seeing that the word gets out to everybody about the next generation in 16 bit gaming.

But every once in a while even we get carried away by pure specifications. Granted the CD-ROM adds tremendously to the play value of the Genesis, but at what point will the consumer say 'No, this is too much?' We've seen this happen to the TurboGrafx CD-ROM. It has been out for several years and the game player's enthusiasm has been lukewarm at best. Only now, when NEC lowered the price to under $300 is anybody taking a second look at their unit. And, the hot item in the newspapers is the fact that parents are starting to say no to the Super Nintendo because of it's lack of downward compatibility and it's hefty price of $200.

Will it be Sega's turn next Spring when they try to sell their CD-ROM for $370? Add in the Genesis and the system lists out in the NEO-GEO range of over $500.

The key, as with any new system, will be in the software. We've done extensive interviews with game developers in Japan and many don't even have CD-ROM development systems yet. And the games that will be out by the end of the year will be at best, cartridge softs with CD quality music. And even then, most are heavy-duty strategy military simulations or Japanese language RPG's. Sega is going to have a hard time in getting good U.S. CD games ready by next summer.

Stripping away all the glitter of this new peripheral, Sega is going to have to watch how, and when they bring the MEGA-CD to the U.S. They were wise not to rush it out the door this year, but they are going to have to take a hard look at even next Spring. The last thing they will want to do is duplicate what NEC did when they brought out their CD-ROM.

On a lighter note, we want to welcome the new member of our Mega Play staff...Tokenmann™ (yes, he's related to the world famous Quartermann). He's been working behind the scenes for the past several months, and, look for his exclusive column next issue. He will have all of the latest and newest in spicy, Sega game gossip.

GENESIS RGB UPDATE...

You guys are spectacular! Great honest reviews, current news and high tech articles that are practical and useful.

I was very interested in your article on RGB for the Genesis and, I set the system up. Your specs and monitor selection was perfect! Your readers should note that the Commodore 1084 monitor has two speakers for stereo sound!

I found that for even better video, a voltage drop should be placed on the negative sync pin. The resistance needed is about 180 ohms. I used a potentiometer and adjusted it until I had a clear stable picture.

Your photos of the difference between RGB and Composite didn't do this upgrade justice. When viewed for the first time, the screen is beyond description!

Mike Malicki DBN Heights, MI

I am the proud owner of a Sega Genesis system which is now hooked up to an RGB monitor (thanks to you guys). Let me tell you that I never want to play video games on a television again! Thanks for the info.

Henry Johnson Albany, GA

One thing which I like about your publications is the fact that you really get into your work. You aren't just recopying press releases as you go out of your way to get us the reason behind the news. Your RGB article is one good example. Do you know if there is any product which will utilize the S-VHS jacks that are appearing on some of the newer TV's?

Jennie Ambrosic
Dry Ridge, KY

signal to S-VHS and you can buy a Super Famicom cable that will hook up to your TV. Unfortunately, Nintendo of America moves so slow that it may be many months (if ever) before they offer this cable. Contact one of the mail order companies for this option.)

R-360 IN U.S.!!

Stop the presses! R-360 and Radmobile are both in the U.S. That's right, they both exist at the Space Needle Arcade in Gatlinburg Tenn.!

It costs $5.00 to play R-360 and it's worth it! It is the best simulator that I've ever played. I could feel the G forces with every rotation.

Radmobile is awesome! It blows Outrun and Power Drift off the face of the planet. There are some nice features like being arrested, caught in the darkness and the cute doll of Sonic the Hedgehog hanging from the top of the screen.

If anybody is ever in the area they should visit this great arcade!

Juanell Spotts Lexington, KY

R-360 appears in the U.S.!

MEGA-CD-ROM..

The Mega-CD-ROM is awesome, not to mention your excellent coverage of this super unit. The other magazines didn't even bother to list the specs while you not only did that, but also showed the games!

Even though it could cost $350+ I would easily commit myself and shell out the money. I've played the Super NES and the slowdown is horrendous. Just think a real 32 bit machine capable of doing anything the S-NES can do! I can't wait.

Delin Johnson
Raleigh, N.C.

After reading about the coming of the long awaited CD-ROM I was elated. I knew that you would be the only one who would have all the details. $370 for the unit. I have no problem paying that much for anything which will take the Genesis into the next generation of game systems!

Jameson Boyer Freemont, CA

First of all I think Mega Play is totally outrageous! I especially like your coverage of the Mega-CD-ROM. In response to your editorial in the last issue, I would gladly pay that much for a system with such amazing capabilities. It would be money well spent! After seeing the pictures of Nostalgia 1907 I'll pay over $350 for anything that good!

Brian Blaskon Clifton, NJ

I would pay $370 for the Mega-CD-ROM any time. It looks like it would blow away any CD-ROM. The specs put the system above the Neo-Geo. And the games would be much cheaper with even more memory! I'll be the first in line when it comes out!

Greg Suzdan Tampa, FL

Sega's new MEGA-CD-ROM!

(Ed. Judging from the 100+ letters that came in so far, it looks like the Mega-CD-ROM will be an instant hit. Absolutely nobody flinched at the price. Some were concerned about the type of software that will be available, but everybody agreed that the specs and abilities of this spectacular new peripheral will make the system worth getting.)

WHERE ARE...?

This is another 'Whatever happened to...?' letter. I need to know several things. First, will New Zealand Story ever come to the U.S.? I ask because Nintendo has changed their licensing contract (and I refuse to get the inferior Nintendo version). And what about Dando? You keep talking about it but it never seems to go anywhere.

Another thing is that you have given the impression that Final Fight or Ninja Gaiden will be coming to the Genesis. This seems to be a little unlikely considering that Capcom and Tecmo don't seem to be working for Sega. Stop stroking us along and show some proof!

Keith Previc
New Cumberland, PA

My favorite games are the RPG's and FRPG's. I breezed through Phantasy Star 2 and Phantasy Star 3 was even easier. What my problem is, I just can't get enough good, hard RPG's for the Genesis. What do you recommend? What ever happened to Moondancer, Sorcerian and all of the other great RPG's that you once previewed in Mega Play?

Josh Bell
Bronx, NY

(Ed. New Zealand Story was an excellent game for the Mega Drive. Unfortunately, the U.S. companies can not bring over every game that is made in Japan. Such is the case of NZS. With all of the great new games that Taito is working on, it is highly unlikely that it will ever appear here.

While Capcom and Tecmo are quite content to stay loyal to Nintendo, there is no reason why they can't license some of their games out to other companies. Such was the case of Mercs. This is a great Capcom arcade shooter but Sega bought the rights from them and it now is a Genesis game. As for Tecmo, look for Ninja Gaiden coming soon for the Game Gear.

Also, many of the Japanese games, while great for the Japanese players, are not as well received by the U.S. players. RPG's are the number one genre of game in Japan, while here in the U.S., the action and adventure games are the best. Language translation is the major problem in bringing over more RPG's, and since the RPG market is relatively small for the Genesis, only a few companies will venture the time and effort to bring out new RPG softs. Look for Star Odyssey from Sage's Creation and a new 12 meg behemoth from Sega!

Dando (also known as Vasum) has been put on hold and won't be out in the U.S. for some time.)

WHITE GAME GEAR

I'm planing to buy a Game Gear system. But before I do I did a little checking up. I was planning to buy a White Game Gear system for $350. This includes the GG, tuner, and a case. But as it turns out, if you buy them separately they only cost $285. Why is the price so different? Is the white GG better than the regular one? If so, in what ways?

Jerry Hwang
Laguna Niguel, CA

The limited production white Game Gear - only in Japan!

(Ed. Sorry Jerry, but you're mixing apples and oranges. The White GG is a Japan only product (the U.S. tuner isn't out yet!) and the price you list is from a mail order company. When we bought our white GG in Japan it was only about $260. Remember if you buy a Japanese tuner you won't get all of the U.S. TV channels. The white GG is special though. Only a few thousand of these were made and they are 'collector's items'. Sega of America won't comment on whether they will bring out a U.S. white GG but, it is a good way to sell a complete system.)

Stay Alive After You Die- To do the trick you must have enough energy to do your special move. First you must be the robot, Scooter.
While using him if you die use his special attack and you won't die.
However you will have no life. Do this trick every time you die, and if your good enough to power back up your life you won't loss a life.

JOHN MADDEN FOOTBALL

(Electronic Arts/Genesis)

Stop Your Opponent From Making Extra Points-Beating your opponent in this game can be tough, but if they can't make extra points it will be hard for them to win. In order to make your opponent miss their extra points, you have to keep going off side until the ball is on the goal line. When your opponent kicks the ball, it will be too low and he'll miss it.

Keep going off sides!

The kick will now be too low!

COMING ATTRACTIONS

SHADOW OF THE BEAST Electronic Arts

This game will probably remind you a lot of Altered Beast with faster game play. This is an action game, and your character is a monster. It's packed with tons of levels all featuring some of the wildest multi-layered backgrounds ever seen on a home system!. Although it plays fast it is very intense with extremely large monsters which easily are half of the screen high. Great animation, bright, vivid colors and spectacular sound are but a few of the points setting this cart above the rest.

Just like the popular computer game!

Spectacular multi dimensional backgrounds!

Unbelievably huge end of round bosses!

CALIBER FIFTY

Mentrix Software

CAL. 50 is an action game that includes a top view perspective mission, and your single character with a weapon blazing at all times. You need to be firing the whole time though, because the number of enemies increases as you go along. The game play has a variety of unique features like jumping into enemy vehicles and using them against the opposition. Fight your way through jungles and invade the enemy fort to put an end to the terrorism caused by these bad guys.

Recover stray enemy bullets to keep yourself alive. Get other weapons for your fight!

Get in the plane for a short time and bombard the enemy!

WARSONG

NCS Corp

A combination of Military Madness style game play with role playing type characters. Fight dragons and other monsters as you go forth to conquer each level with strategy and planning. You must place your army in strategic locations and destroy all of the opposing army's weaponry. Once you have planned out your moves, get ready to watch the action as the two armies fight it out.

Watch the results of the battle as the two armies fight it out.

Have large amounts of troops when you go into battle. They will be long and hard fought! Watch out for the magic users, many men will die if your not careful!

SWAMP THING

Nuvision

This is a new action game that pits Swamp Thing against the unusual and unfriendly creatures that inhabit his territory. He has to save the swamp and make it a better place for all people...or whatever. Very detailed multi-layered backgrounds, and a variety of game play options are some of the highlights of this original title.

JOE MONTANA FOOTBALL

Sega

Joe Montana is coming to the Game Gear. The graphics and game play are similar to the Master System only shrunk down to fit on the tiny Game Gear screen. Select from a variety of defensive and offensive plays and go for the one that suits you best. Make a touchdown and get the extra point.

There are many hazards such as toxic waste. Watch for quicksand as well.

HALLEY WARS TAITO

You're an ace pilot on a mission through the galaxy. Travel past every planet in our solar system fighting enemy planes and warships. Fill up your fire power and add different options like lasers and triple-shooting machine guns. You'll face many dangers such as asteroids and a barrage of enemy firepower from all sides. You come face to face with some of the meanest bosses ever seen on the portable screen.

Watch out for falling stars through the asteroid fields. If you're in their way, you're toast!

Fight huge end-of-level bosses that take up the whole screen!

Play the angles right, and you'll wind up with a hole-in-one!

PUTT N PUTTER Sega

For those of you who spend your nights waiting in line at the miniature golf courses, here's a great (and faster) alternative! With putter in hand, you are out to the most amazing miniature golf course you'll ever find. All manner of weird holes need to be conquered with innovative shots and good bumper reads. Sometimes hitting the bumpers is the only way to go. Your find yourself golfing over water or even in fiery pits filled with lava. There are even close-ups of close shots.

CORPORATION Virgin Games

Are you ready to take on the whole corporation? You're being placed inside an enormous spaceship that is infested with monsters. Your job is to rid the ship of the monsters! Fans of Zenophobe won't have any fears about this sharp release, and the first-person perspective really keeps your interest.

VAPOR TRAIL Renovation

A good, challenging shooter, played from top view perspective. Choose from three different advanced fighters, each with unique strengths and weaknesses. There are many chances to power up your fighter during the game, as you fire at tanks and enemy fighters. Digitized voices and intense game play abound!

PACMANIA Tengen

Pacman is back but in an innovative three-quarter overhead perspective. Pacman has one new quality in this game: now he can jump! Jumping the ghosts will make it easier to get away, but be careful! Those ghosts are still mighty fast, and plenty strong!

Chomp all the ghosts for extra points!

Travel through different mazes, all with different ways to go!

FATAL REWIND

Electronic Arts

This is a very unique action/shooter that boasts a futuristic game show theme sort of like Running Man. You are in control of a small robot and are will run about levels of varying complexity because it looks as if they repeat themselves. A variety of special techniques such as walking up walls will be used in your fight for survival. Pick up special weapons and life refills to increase your odds of surviving the insane labyrinth of dangers. The main thing to worry about is the dangerous liquid that is constantly rising to dissolve your existence.

Get other weapons like triple shots or lasers!

Climb the walls to escape the enemies and the water!

QUAD CHALLENGE

Off road racing has never been this fun! This cart features split screen racing action as you speed through some of the roughest courses ever conceived. An added plus is that you can't get hurt if you take a nasty spill.

Check out these wicked jumps and be careful of the hairpin turns.

THUNDER FOX

Taito

This side scrolling action cart based on the seldom seen coin-op is reminiscent of Rush'n Attack with more intense power-ups. Pick up machine guns, rocket launchers, and flame throwers to help you destroy the enemy stronghold. Great multi-layer scrolling and solid game play make this cart a welcome entry in the action category.

Pick up the flame thrower for more power.

VALIS SYD Renovation

Though not quite finished, we can tell you that it looks like a pretty cool cart. It is basically a cartoon version of the famous Valis series of games. And you can choose different weapons and armor from an options screen, and all of them can help you on your quest. Impressive bosses make this a winner.

PAPERBOY Tengen

Grab your handlebars, strap on your paper sack, and watch out for small animals as you get ready for the most dangerous job there is! Adapted from the famous coin-op, you must satisfy your customers, and make non subscribers pay (for new windows, that is). A nice translation for the Genesis.

ROADBLASTERS Tengen

Jump in the seat of the ultimate car, loaded with heavy gun fire and added bonuses. Armored cars and turret guns are out to stop you. Pick up bubbles of gas so you don't run out during the race. Noone out there wants you to win, so be on your guard whenever you hit traffic.

STAR ODYSSEY

Sage's Creation

A futuristic role playing adventure with the same play perspective as Phantasy Star. The action scenes however are from side view like Vermillion. There are many cool back-grounds and the game gets increasingly involved as you progress through the quest.

RBI 3 Tengen

Sequel to one of the most popular baseball games on Nintendo, this cart boasts enhanced graphic and sound quality. There are loads of options that make the game play better than any other baseball cart to date. There's even an instant replay feature that lets you watch the best plays of the game. Other features include digitized voices and official teams with real players.

GOLDEN AXE III

GOLDEN AXE IS BACK!!!!

The people at Sega have been hard at work working on a sequel to one of the original Genesis games - Golden Axe. They've brought back the same characters and revamped them with new magic and special techniques, and they stuck them in new levels and put them up against a cast of even more deadly and powerful enemies.

After years of peace you have to defend your land from the evil invaders. You must defeat them by using a sword or a axe, and you will be aided with the art of an ancient magic. You are the only one that has the power to face and defeat the ruthless invaders and rescue the land from the evil one.

TWO PLAYER SIMULTANEOUS

Like the original Golden Axe this version has the feature of playing with your friend simultaneously.

THE DUEL

You can practice beating certain enemies by having it out with them in a duel.

PALADIN

SWORDSMAN

AXEMAN

DRAGONS

Like the original version you can use the enemies pets to attack!

Use this guy to give your enemy a swift back kick in the face!

A nice whip of the tail should be enough to keep any enemy down!

The classic fire breath of a dragon can be a very useful weapon.

LEVEL 2

You got a little taste of the game but don't get too cocky, all the levels aren't as easy as level one. Watch out for the edge of the cliff, you can fall off. Try knocking the enemies off the edge.

BOSS

LEVEL 3

The start of this level is the hardest part. You have to make a very difficult jump. You must time it perfectly and jump right before you fall off. Use your jump attack to beat the boss.

LEVEL 4

You start to get attacked by more enemies at one time, so take it slow. Your best form of attack for this level is to use your special attack. Don't waste your magic you'll need it for the boss.

BOSS

LEVEL 5

The enemies in this level can be tough, make sure to use your magic wisely because it will come in handy against the boss. Watch out, the bosses are tough because they gang up on you.

OUTRUN

I CAN'T DRIVE 55!

Throw your car into low gear and hear the squeal of the tires. Watch the gauge and at 110 jam it into high gear and scream by your fellow racers. Blow by those girls in the pink BMW or the guys in the Jeep at speeds of 280 mph. Feel the handling of your Testarossa as you take a turn at 250mph! But watch out, don't touch any other cars on the road or you'll spin out. Don't crash either or it will cost you some time on the clock! Your job is to beat that clock and blow through 15 different courses around the world ranging from the deserts of Morocco to the mountains and oceans of Europe! It takes practice to drive at 280 so put on your seat belt (after all, it's the law) and blast into the record books!

Always keep an eye on the race clock! It's time to retire when it reaches zero, so use your skills and finish in first!

Start at stage one and race until the fork. At this junction, split to stage 2 or 3. Repeat this until you reach the final leg of the race. Do it fast or else time is going to catch up on you in a big way!

There are five different endings in the game. You can pick the one you want to see by selecting the proper turn at the end of each racing stage.

Like the arcade version, you can select the tunes by turning the radio dial!

YO SMOKEY! DID YOU CLOCK HOW MUCH THAT GUY WAS DOIN'?

That's right! The ultra speedy hedgehog with an attitude has just sped his way into the 8-bit market! Sonic's friends are starting to vanish from his homeland. A little browsing around uncovers that the wicked Dr. Robotnic is stealing all of the furry inhabitants and converting them into cybernetic slaves! Well no hedgehog hero is going to stand for that! Use your super speed to zip through a whole new world with some levels not found in the 16-bit version! Try to take out the plans of this mad scientist and free your friends. Through the levels you'll come across different items like super sneakers that will really give you get-up-and-go power, bubble shields that will help you survive longer, and much, much more!

This time, Sonic has a whole new world to explore! Now you have the Jungle, bridge, and sky base zone to deal with!

GREEN HILL ZONE

Based on the Genesis version, this zone has you jumping and collecting tons of rings on your way to nabbing that evil Dr. Robotnic in his cruiser. Robotic flies, crabs, and bugs will try to stop you.

BRIDGE ZONE

Watch out for the openings in the log bridges. You'll plummet to your doom if you are not careful. Keep an eye open for hidden rings and items!

JUNGLE ZONE

Be wary of the water, the current might send you down a waterfall of death!

Race through levels of vines and waterfalls as you try to get to the next zone!

LABRYNTH ZONE

LOOK OUT BELOW!

In the Labrynth Zone, Sonic will have to watch out for water domestic enemies and robotic moles as well as fighting through land and water sequences. Make sure that you have enough oxygen to last through the level, for if you don't, it's back to the hedgehog heaven in the sky!

SCRAP BRAIN ZONE

The Scrap Brain Zone contains a mechanical twisting and turning maze that is filled to the brim with conveyor belts, transmits and other highly unusual machines that will try to fry you into hedgehog burgers!

SKY BASE ZONE

Board this humongous airborne vessel and find Dr. Robotnic. It's all up to you now. Good Luck!

Be careful, the last level is filled with cannons!

Adventure

8 Meg Nov. 1991

DAVE

There's no doubt TJ&E has some of the best graphics and sounds you'll get on the Genesis, but there's a slight problem - the game. It's fun, but there's not as much depth as I would have liked.

G.O.G.

This game has some very rockin' tunes and the sound effects are like no other. It tends to get boring after awhile because all you do is walk around. Interesting cart, but at what price?

MIKE

This is one of the most innovative and most entertaining carts I've seen in a long time. Great music and fantastic game play that leaves you laughing long after the game is over.

BART

There are a lot of funny features and the music is really cool, but I don't see how all this makes a great game. The sound test is hilarious and the digitized effects are truly awesome.

EL VIENTO

Here is an interesting side scroller set in the 1930's. Annett is a woman who has been sent to rid the world of a dark overlord. With technique that is similar to the Valis series, El Viento is all-action!

Renovation

Genesis

Action

8 Meg Nov. 1991

DAVE

El Viento takes some of the best concepts we've seen in Genesis games and piles on loads of new features. It looks and plays good, and there's plenty of hectic fighting for action fans.

G.O.G.

Renovation does it again bringing you another great game with 8 Meg power. This cart has game play that is rarely seen in Sega games, matching that of my favorites. Cool magic.

MIKE

Combine fantastic game play with state of the art graphics and 8-Meg of power and you get this great looking, great playing cart. Incredible stereo sound is another plus.

BART

Killer explosions and awesome graphics set this action cart above the rest. The game play is absolutely the best on the Genesis, filled with tons of techniques and interesting power-ups.

ROAD RASH

This is not your typical motorcycle racing game. The action is very fast, and not only can you pass your opponents, but you can sock them right off their bikes. Watch for oncoming cars or you'll bite the dust!

Electronic Arts Genesis

DAVE

EA has done a superb job with the first-person graphics and game play in Road Rash which are the best I've seen in a Genesis driver. The technique and play structure is also a hit!

MIKE

EA has successfully made one of the best motorcycle games ever. Great scrolling and upbeat music in addition to some crushing accidents make this an enjoyable cart to play.

Driving

G.O.G.

This game is so totally cool! To tell you the truth the graphics aren't anything spectacular, but they're decent. What makes the game so cool is that it is so fun. I love the wipe outs!!!

BART

This cart's best feature is the variety of wicked spills that you take when you wipe out. The game play is a little sloppy but this game is really fun to play, and that's what counts.

RAIDEN TRAD

Another good shooter for the Genesis. Raiden invites you to fire upon enemy tanks and planes as you zoom down from above! With cool power-ups and fast game play, Raiden pushes shooters to the limit!

Micronet

Genesis

Shooter

DAVE

The wildest shooter in a long time! Earlier efforts showed the Genesis could do shooters, but the great graphics and play of Raiden proves it can do them even better now!

MIKE

This game is a virtual carbon copy of the arcade classic. Stunning graphics and explosive sound effects blended with solid shooting action make this one of my favorites shooters.

G.O.G.

There hasn't been many good shooters that have come out on the Genesis in awhile but this game is a welcome change of pace. A good translation from the coin-up and a challenge.

BART

One of the most intense shooters available for any system. Great graphics and sounds and a high level of challenge make this 8-Meg monster a cart worth looking at.

SWAMP THING

Swamp thing is an interesting type of game. Take on the appearance of certain pieces of your swamp environment while knocking out your enemies! Be careful, however, because you may be followed!

Nuvision

Genesis

Action

Meg

10/90

DAVE

Swamp Thing could have been a really cool game with a lot of interesting concepts thrown into the proven theme. Instead we get graphics and game play that are both lacking.

MIKE

This cart doesn't boast anything that would make you think it's a Genesis game. The play and graphics are just not up to standards that we've come to expect from a 16-Bit title.

G.O.G.

Come on people, this a 16-bit system, not a Atari 2600. Really, the graphics are poor and the game play is too slow. And, oh boy, does this put out a jammin' swamp beat.

BART

This is a totally unacceptable 16-Bit game. The graphics, sounds, and animation are below average. The game play is awful and leaves you frustrated and uninterested.

DECAPATTACK

You wouldn't think that a guy with his head in his stomach would be a hero, but Chuck D. Head is here and he's the star of this delightfully spooky game. Run, jump and fight through the underworld!

Sega

Genesis

DAVE

This game gets an 'A' for originality, but in the end it's just another very average action game with cute gimmick. The presentation of the graphics and play just didn't stay for me.

G.O.G.

If you like a game where you attack people with your stomach, then this is a great game. Graphics are cool and the game plays really well. Decap does lack good sound and long play time.

MIKE

This shows a lot of promise. It has an original theme and solid game play that make it one of the more interesting action carts available. The end bosses are also animated extremely well.

BART

Not a lot to impress me, but if you don't mind the weird graphics and annoying sound this cart is a good playing alternative for action game fans. I really liked the end bosses a lot.

MERCS

Non-stop action awaits you in this faithful arcade translation of the popular shooter. Shoot down your adversaries, gain weapon strength, use your grenades, and defeat the enemy army.

Sega

Genesis

Action/Shooter

Meg

DAVE

This game is a very good translation of the arcade original, but the play, is simply too easy and the overall game too short to warrant the higher marks it would otherwise receive.

G.O.G.

This is a good translation from the coin-up. The power-ups are awesome and very effective, and that's what I like in a video game. It is, however, a little too easy for my tastes.

MIKE

This is a good translation of the arcade smash. The power-ups are there and the end bosses are there. About the only complaint I have is the difficulty level is set extremely easy.

BART

A good over head shooter with a variety of cool power-ups. The bosses are big and mean and the graphics are excellent. The game is way too easy and finished rather quickly.

MARVEL LAND

Jump on enemies, get power-ups, and don't fall in the water! It's Marvel Land, and with its happy theme it's sure to appeal to a younger audience. Lots of action and enhancements fill the many levels of Marvel Land!

Namco

Genesis

Action

Meg

10/90

DAVE

This game is a true sleeper that shouldn't be overlooked! Marvel Land uses cute characters and pastel graphics, but the play is long and uses A-1 technique and plenty of enhancements.

G.O.G.

There are some really neat things in this game ranging from the cool tracer effect you get when you power-up your character to the wild scrolling. The action is slow in spots but still good.

MIKE

This cute game is really not for kids. In fact it has some of the best technique and game play to be found on the Genesis. Great action that delivers Super Mario type game play.

BART

Marvel Land is a great playing game featuring lots of special power-ups and other techniques. The different levels which resemble amusement park rides are really cool.

SAINT SWORD

In Saint Sword you play a medieval type character. You can get different types of power-ups, some of which will change your form to a winged man, a half man-half horse and others.

Taito

Genesis

Action

Meg

10/90

DAVE

Another action game for the Genesis featuring large characters and even larger end bosses. The different forms that you change into are interesting but the game lacks any real excitement.

G.O.G.

They had a good idea in this game, but they fell short in the game play. The cart is a slightly slow, but the graphics are pretty cool. The transformations are neat, but aren't really used.

MIKE

Another action game for the Genesis featuring large characters and even larger end bosses. The different forms that you change into are interesting but the game lacks any real excitement.

BART

The graphics in this game are average and the idea behind it is cool, but the game play is very choppy. I found this puts a damper on the good points of the game and it left me disappointed.

SPEEDBALL 2

Set in the future, Speedball 2 centers around futuristic sports action! Hold on tight to the ball because your opponents are out to knock it out of your hands-literally! The sport of the future is here today!

Arena

Genesis

Sports

Meg

10/90

DAVE

While I applaud the effort made to create a new 'sport' on the Genesis, this attempt just doesn't work well. The controls aren't responsive enough and the play is never really exciting.

G.O.G.

I like this game, but I think they could have done a better job. Like, giving you more moves. Right now all you can do is throw the ball and slide tackle. The instant replay gets annoying!

MIKE

This is a great playing sports game resembling a cross between Cyberball and soccer. Detailed graphics and fast paced game play make this a futuristic contest for all.

BART

I don't like this game. The graphics are good but they never change and get boring after awhile. The game play is repetitive and a little sluggish at times. Where's the music?

ROADBLASTERS

Blast away your enemies going over 200 mph in this road fight to the finish. Translated from the arcade, this driving shooter will keep you on the edge of your seat. Fasten your seatbelts!

Tengen

Genesis

Driving

Meg

10/90

DAVE

The look and feel of this game is straight from the arcades. The first-person graphics do display some rough edges, but the action and play are captured well. As a fan of RB, I liked it!

G.O.G.

Not a great translation from the arcade, but a good attempt. You don't have enough control of your car. Also, what happened to the backgrounds? They're really weak but overall it's still fun.

MIKE

While the graphic and sound translation was well done, the most important aspect of the game, being game play, was somehow lost. A good effort that could have been excellent.

BART

The original freeway stress reliever is looking and sounding good on the Genesis, but the game play is not responsive enough and the lack of control hinders it's potential.
